Delve into the literary structures and symbolism of the Bible, and engage with its enduring narratives, inspiring characters, and timeless themes in a new way.

Whatever your background, living in the modern world requires an understanding of Biblical stories, metaphors and allusions.

Join us starting on Monday, February 5, 2018 for the new thirteen week DVD-based course Reading Biblical Literature, Part III: The New Testament.

There are no prerequisites, and anyone can join us at any time. All are welcome!
