Congregational Notice (from Pat Kirton-Bailey, Chair, Visioning Committee): As most of you are aware, we had scheduled a Congregational meeting for Sunday October 20th after church to make some decisions on the possibility of an Intentional Interim Minister, or a consultant to help us through this transitioning time. At this point it time we feel that we must postpone this meeting for a month. Those of you who have been in church over the last couple of months have noticed that we have blocked off the balcony, and are probably wondering what is happening. We have had people looking at this and the belfry to see what needs to be done there. We are getting very close to having answers the this question. The Visioning committee feels that until we know just what has to be done to correct issues with the balcony and the belfry that it is not fair to ask members of the congregation to make any decisions that will require any financial output.

We are lucky to have Tracy a qualified Designated Lay Minister who has all the qualifications to lead our church. She is here help to guide us through the next few months.

We want to remind people that churches have always run because of the generous gifts of time and talent that are offered by the members of the congregation, if you have time that you can spare to help with tasks around the church, please contact the church office or talk to Tracy. This can be a wonderful time of renewal and growth if we all get involved.

We will be holding the congregational meeting on Sunday, November 24, right after the morning service. By that time we will have more information for everyone so we can all make an educated decision on what our next steps will be.
