

Giving Life to Our Vision

As a community of faith, we believe God is continually calling the Church into new possibilities. This is our invitation to prayerfully discern that call and to imagine the future God is leading us to create together.

This is not a conversation about decline. It is a conversation about hope.

It is about listening for God's voice, embracing new opportunities for ministry, and responding with faith and courage. Together, we are discerning a vision for a church that is vibrant, welcoming, compassionate, and deeply rooted in God's love.

Stewardship is how we participate in that vision.

Our gifts of time, talent, and financial resources are more than support for St. Andrew's ministry. They are investments in tomorrow's mission. Every act of generosity helps bring our shared vision to life, ensuring that our congregation continues to be a place where faith is nurtured, relationships are strengthened, and God's love is lived and shared.

As we journey forward, I invite every member of our church family to prayerfully consider how God is calling them to participate. Because when each of us offers what we can, God does something extraordinary with our collective gifts.

Together, we can:

Discern God's vision.

Respond with generous hearts.

Give life to our shared future.

God's Vision of New Possibilities

Isaiah 43:19

"See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it?"

Jeremiah 29:11

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."

Together, We Are Giving Life to Our Vision.
